LaMirada Tennis Shop

Owner Kuk Ru Lee of the La Mirada Tennis Shop presents a check for $500 to Dimas Benavides, President, and Ron Martin, Vice President of the La Mirada Tennis Club.

This $500 donation played a major part in making the recent La Mirada Tennis Club Charity Doubles Tournament a successful event.

The La Mirada Tennis Shop offers a variety of tennis racquets, shoes, clothing and other tennis accessories. It is located close by in the strip mall on the southeast corner of Imperial Highway and Santa Gertrudes. The address is 15842 ½ Imperial Highway and the telephone number is 562.902.6371.

La Mirada Tennis Club member Arnold Villajuan manages the shop so stop by and check it out. Arnold is very knowledgeable and he looks forward to answering your questions and assisting you with your next tennis purchase.. .

Walter Romanowski

Walter wins the 4.0 Singles Ladder Championship final! Considering the record he had against Chris Gabion and Gerardo Lopez you would have to consider his win a major upset.

Chris Gabion had dominated the 4.0 Singles Ladder for most of the year. This did not deter Walter and he beat Chris in a tough three (3) set in the semi-finals.

Outside of breaking the strings on his two rackets during the warm-up, everything else worked fine for Walter and he hung on to win the Championship Match over Gerardo Lopez, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

You have to admire Walter for raising his game to a new level, thereby allowing him to win the mug, emblematic of the 4.0 Singles Ladder Championship. . .

Son of LMTC Member Ray Mireles Receive Prestigious Honor

Matt Mireles, a junior at Columbia University and contributor to the Daily Spectator, was presented with the Eric Breindel Award for Excellence in Opinion Journalism.

Matt created a multimedia presentation called "The Faces of Iraq," which tells the dramatic stories of dozens of Columbia students with personal experience in the Iraq war as soldiers, filmmakers, aid workers or innocent civilians. You can see his work at facesofiraq.com.

The Eric Breindel Award includes a $10,000 check and a summer internship at the Fox News Channel. . .

Bob Lugo

Bob Lugo was born March 23, 1953 in Compton, California. Tragically he passed away August 7, 2006 at the age of 53.

His funeral service was attended by many of his friends at the La Mirada Tennis Club and the Greater Whittier Tennis Club. Only God knows why Bob was taken in the prime of his life.

Bob has always been a good ambassador for the game of tennis. He had a great deal of knowledge of the game and more importantly was always a gentleman on the courts. Bob could always be seen in his Laker or UCLA attire; he was a great sports fan.

We will miss Bob! . . .
